Training Workshop 22nd CPN Conference, Colombo, Sri Lanka

In continuation of the CPN policy towards increasing membership value to its members, a Training Workshop on topics of relevance to the logistic industry was organized and held at the end of the 22nd CPN Conference in Colombo, April 27th, 2018.

The professor for this workshop was CPN and FIATA Advisor and responsible of Training Activities, Thomas SIM.

This initiative was received with great enthusiasm. Over 30 participants with different levels of seniority and experience in the industry attended the full-day program that included the following topics:

- International Transport Organizations
- Insurance as a Part of Risk Management
- Global Insurance Markets
- Cargo Insurance
- Multimodal Transport Liability Insurance

Attendants received through these lectures conceptual and up to date information on Standard Trading Conditions (STC); the FIATA Model Rules for Multimodal Transport Operators (MTO) and the International Conventions for the Transport of Goods via the Various Modes under the UN Commission of International Trade of Law (UNCITRAL).

Sharing their experiences after the conclusion of the training Workshop, over the 90% of the participants indicated that they found the topics very relevant to their business practice, that the content was very well organized and current and that the program fully fulfilled their expectations.

CPN intends to continue this series of educational workshop as to include other topics of significant relevance to assist the member companies in increasing the quality and the profitability of their operations and to keep their standards up to the highest current level.

Congratulations to Mr. Thomas Sim for the quality of his work and the demonstrated commitment to the education of the CPN members.

If you have any other experiences to share or suggestions for topics to be included in future editions, please contact the CPN Secretariat at cpn@cargopartnersnetwork.com

U.S. Goods Coming to Canada that are subject to Tariff

OTTAWA — Canada will impose retaliatory tariffs on up to $16.6 billion worth of U.S. imports in response to the American decision to place similar levies on Canadian-made steel and aluminum.

The Canadian tariffs, which go into effect July 1, cover a broad range of items. Some, mainly unfinished iron and steel products, will be hit with a 25 per cent tariff, while others, including many consumer products, will be tagged with a 10-per-cent duty.

Here is a list of some of the affected products, which run from industrial metal bars to gherkins, whiskey and felt-tipped pens.

Trump tariffs: US escalates trade threats to China

US President Donald Trump has threatened to impose tariffs on an additional $200bn (£151bn) of Chinese goods in a growing trade row.

Mr Trump said the 10% tariffs would come into effect if China "refuses to change its practices".

The threats would be a major escalation of the dispute and sparked further falls on stock markets Read more on BBC news 19 June 2018
